About Me

A 32 year old woman, passionated about design, technology , the idea of changing the world with innovative ideas and high quality experiences. Portuguese native speaker and always an English learner.

I moved to New York to take my career to the next level and I fell in love with human centered design.

Since then, I started studying, researching and experimenting.

What?! App

Interaction Design UI/UX

What?! App is a school project for Interface Design class. The idea of the app is to have fun reading and sharing secrets with friends and people you don't know.
